1. Q -- What phases of the work in the Yugoslav Embassy in Washington are receiving the most attention?
A -- The Ambassador devotes his time to smoothing over relations with the US as much as possible. The Communist Party, however, is not satisfied with Kozanovic. Medoide and Zore concentrate on maintaining relations with US Communists. Dragila concentrates on policy and propaganda regarding immigrants of Serbian, Croat and Slovenian descent, and on OZNA work. Dragila's safe in the Embassy undoubtedly contains the party code, and lists of names of important party workers in the US.
2. Q -- What are the relations between the Embassy and the various Yugoslav groups in the US?
A -- Liaison with these groups is maintained chiefly by Dragila in Washington, Babin in New York, and Vokovic in Canada. Their efforts are concentrated on repatriation, and the organizing of pro-Tito groups.
